

50TH WEEKLONG!

Advanced and Certification Weeklong 2020 Belonging and Crossing in Community

GARRISON INSTITUTE
APRIL 26-MAY 1, 2020

Invitation to Apply for the Dr. Janet Klein Scholarship

The intention of Interactive Focusing is to build bonds of intimacy by allowing you to "touch into your direct experience in the presence of another person."

DR. JANET KLEIN

Thanks to the family of Dr. Janet Klein and other generous donors, scholarship money is available to help you attend the Advanced and Certification Weeklong.

JANET KLEIN

The International Focusing Institute and Janet's family established a fund to continue her legacy in the Focusing world. This scholarship promotes Dr. Klein's vision of an international community where anyone with a passion for Focusing has access to the training and connections available at the Weeklong.

Applicants should:

- demonstrate commitment and capacity to spread Focusing
- be members of The International Focusing Institute (preferably having been members throughout their training)
- be appropriate for attendance at the Weeklong, either being advanced in their studies or ready for certification
- need financial assistance to attend

APPLYING FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP

If you are interested in participating in this year's Weeklong, talk to your Coordinator and ask him or her to nominate you for this scholarship.

The size of an individual's scholarship will depend on economic need and available funds. Awards can vary from partial tuition reduction to (in rare instances) assistance with all costs, including tuition as well as room and board (but not transportation). The applicant should clearly indicate which costs he or she can pay and which costs he or she cannot.

Deadlines: We must receive the letter from the Coordinator recommending the applicant AND all materials from the applicant by January 31, 2020. We will let you know by the end of February whether or not you have received a scholarship.

REQUIRED MATERIALS DUE January 31, 2020:

1. Recommendation from the Coordinator of approximately 250 – 500 words.
2. Letter of interest from the applicant, explaining background in Focusing, interest in spreading Focusing and amount of funds requested. Length should be approximately 500 to 750 words. All applications must be in English, although duplicate materials in your own language may be submitted as well, if desired.

Send your application to janetkleinscholarship@focusing.org. You are also welcome to contact us at any time with any questions.
